Music for life: Our aims

The accent of this non-residential course is on enhancing musical skills and widening horizons. Experience the joy of playing with others in trios, quartets, and larger ensembles.

The daily timetable runs from 9am to 1pm

The schedule is tailor-made for the ability of each individual student.

Core Course Elements include

- Chamber Music groups - learning to play in smaller ensembles.
- String Orchestra playing - for sight-reading and ensemble skills.
- Technique, Choir & Dalcroze - developing all-round musician, helping pitch sense and intonation and instilling tempo, rhythm and phrasing.
- Music carefully chosen to cater for participants.

An inspiring location for families & learning

- One of the world's most inspiring holiday locations.
- Great things to do for all the family.
- Loads of places to visit.

Parent and participant quotes from 2012

- "I loved it! It was the BEST thing I have EVER done."
- "I was hugely impressed by the ability to find some great music to suit all groups & tastes. My kids had a ball!"
- "It is impressive to see the ensemble skills that even the youngest children developed through the week."
- "I really enjoyed it. Will definitely come again next year!"
